SIR:

The "Allowable Subject Matter & Reasons for Allowance" included at page 2 of the Notice of Allowance states "said standard dictionary, which is used from electronic catalog of a component, having a classification hierarchy consisted of a component class related to a tree structure and a property of the component class, among other obvious features."

Applicants note that the "classification hierarchy of" and "among other obvious features" are not recited in the claims, and Applicants therefore respectfully request that a revised Statement of Reasons for Allowance be issued without reference to subject matter not recited in the independent claims.
